STATE AND FEDERAL PROGRAMS ADMINISTRATION

The school system operates many specially funded programs that must be administered in accordance with particular federal and/or state laws and regulations.

The School Committee hereby authorizes the Superintendent of Schools and the Assistant Superintendents to make application, in its behalf, to the United States government or the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, for grant assistance. The Superintendent and Assistant Superintendents shall make such representations and commitments as shall be required by the United States Commissioner of Education, and otherwise will act as the authorized representatives of this School Committee for this purpose.
